

Election Administration Plan - Public Comment Worksheet

Is your county transitioning to a new and modern voting experience under the Voter's Choice Act?

Help shape the future of elections in your community by providing public comment on the Election Administration Plan (EAP), the plan that outlines the upcoming changes. Locations for voting and the public education plan are among the most important components of the EAP and the focus of this worksheet. Find your county's EAP at this link: sos.ca.gov/elections/voters-choice-act/vca-counties

Vote Centers replace neighborhood polling places and offer improved services to voters. The law recommends that locations be near: public transit, free parking, popular community locations, communities of people with disabilities, communities of people who are limited English proficient, communities that are low-income, and communities that are isolated or rural.
	Yes	No
Are vote center locations convenient, familiar, comfortable and easy to access for you and your community?
If you need assistance in another language, is there a vote center listed that will be convenient to you?
If you need assistance to cast an independent and private ballot, is there a vote center listed that will be convenient to you?
Do you think that there is a need for a mobile Vote Center for people who can't easily get to a listed location?
Are Vote Center hours convenient?
What additional locations do you recommend? Feel free to list a specific address, or the neighborhood where it should be located.
What concerns, if any, do you have about location(s) or hours?
Ballot Drop Boxes are secure boxes for casting a mail ballot. The law recommends that locations be near: public transit, free parking, popular community locations, communities of people with disabilities, communities of people who are limited English proficient, communities that are low-income, and communities that are isolated or rural.
