

A new and modern voting experience is coming to Los Angeles County in 2020!

How you and your community can get involved:

Los Angeles County is transitioning to a new election model in 2020 where you can vote over an 11-day period at any county vote center. Visit lavote.net to learn more. Below are opportunities for LA County residents to engage in the implementation of the new voting experience and offer feedback.

Mock Election: September 28 & 29, 2019

- ✚ A preview of the new voting experience through a fun and interactive Mock Election at 50 locations, open to all Los Angeles County residents. This event will showcase the new technologies that will be used in future elections, so participants can experience firsthand the exciting changes and offer feedback. For more information, visit lavote.net/mock-election.

Demo Centers: October 2019 – January 2020

- ✚ An additional opportunity for the public to interact with the new voting experience, available at 10 locations.

Pilot Election: November 5, 2019

- ✚ Voters eligible to vote in the November 5, 2019 Elections can interact with new technologies ahead of the official roll-out of the new voting experience for the March 2020 Elections.

Election Administration Plan: October 2019

- ✚ LA County will release an initial draft of the Election Administration Plan (EAP) to the public by October 1, which will describe in detail the new voting experience. Community members are encouraged to review the EAP within the 14-day comment period and provide feedback online or at a public hearing to be scheduled in October 2019.

Join Voter's Choice Los Angeles

- ✚ Voter's Choice Los Angeles focuses on supporting Los Angeles' diverse communities to ensure voters know about their new voting experience. We will host webinars and events to keep our network connected and informed of the latest developments on the implementation process.
